

Valerie Mae Holcomb

January 13, 1942 - August 30, 2005

Valerie M. Holcomb was born in Cleveland, Ohio on January 13, 1942 to the late Charles and Lois Maddox of Mount Vernon, New York. Lear as she was known by everyone attended the Edison Vocational and Technical High School where she graduated in 1961. She won an award in 1961 for the Westchester Cancer Committee. She accepted Christ and was baptized at the Community Apostolic Church in Mount Vernon, New York. She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Lawrence W. Holcomb; two daughters, Dottie Tyler (dedicated son-in-law, Robert), Sonya Vanclief (Lance); five sons, Lawrence (Karen), Michael, Thomas (Jacquelyn), Joey and Codie Holcomb; twelve grandchildren, seven great grandchildren; two sisters, Shirley Dorsey (Danny) and Delores Maddox-Ayers (Lance); one brother, Daniel Maddox (Juanita); two brothers who preceded her in death. Douglas and Harry Maddox—all from Mount Vernon New York. Devoted friends, Teresa Caines and Alma Jones; a host of other relatives and friends. Lear had a strong, loving, and caring heart. She was very dedicated and supportive to her family and friends. She was also presented with a certificate of merit for a prize-winning entry in the Seventeenth Annual High School Cancer Essay and poster competition from the Westchester Cancer Committee of the American Cancer Society, Inc. in 1961. She was a very talented artist. As a very kind hearted person, she would give you the shirt off her back. She took the time to listen to those who brought their problems or whatever the case may have been, Lear listened humbly. She believed in the true God. Psalms 83:18

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My condolences goes out to Niki and his family. We may never know why she had to go so soon but we know that she is in a better place. May she rest in peace. Poem: Don't think of me as being dead, For I am only sleeping, Don't think of me as being gone, I'm in God's safekeeping. Don't cry a lot of tears for me I would not like that you see, But think of me as the one you loved And now I am free. On the days that you miss me the most, Just look up to the sky, For I will be among the clouds With my Savior up on high.##imported-begin##Charmaine Royall##imported-end##
