“ I send my warm condolences to the family at this time. Please find much comfort in the hope of the resurrection. At John 11:25 Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." Jesus gave his life so that we would have an opportunity for everlasting life. At John 10,10 he says" "For I have come so that they might have life, and have it in abundance. Please keep these wonderful promises close to your hearts to help you to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##
