

Valerie Ross

July 17, 1964 - February 5, 2010

VALERIE ROSS, daughter of Vashti Ross Parrish and the late Joseph (Joe Willis) Hall and mother of Donald Green, Jr., was born on July 17, 1964 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on February 5, 2010 after an extended illness. She received her education in the public schools of Baltimore City in Baltimore, Maryland. Upon leaving school, she worked in food service at Towson State College (now University) and at Lifelite Company in the community of Woodberry. Valerie was baptized in the Methodist church and at an early age, received Christ in her life. A single mother, Valerie loved and adored her only child and son, Donald, affectionately known as "DJ". Except for a short stay in Philadelphia, Valerie was a lifelong East Baltimorean, made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was a good friend and a devoted family member. Her family members were her "best friends". Valerie enjoyed trips to Atlantic City, watching television, and she especially enjoyed being with her grandchildren. She leaves to mourn her passing and to celebrate her life: her son, Donald Green Jr; mother, Vashti Ross Parrish; and ten grandchildren, Dae'Keirah Green, Demoreya Green, DiQuan Green, DaShay Green, Darrien Green, Dillon, Sasha and Shakai James, Derrick Streater and Jaamal Weeks. In addition, she leaves: two aunts, Georgia M. Cox and Ruth Redmond; two uncles, Joel Ross Sr. and William Ross Sr.; and a host of cousins and friends. Special among her friends is Calvin Gorham.

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts you in all your tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4)###imported-begin###G, Winston###imported-end###

“ I would like to extend my condolences to the family and friends of Valerie Ross. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come out to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).###imported-begin###S.
