

Valerie Taylor

May 19, 1961 - February 22, 2002

Valerie Taylor, daughter of Clyde P. Taylor and the late Valaida J. Taylor was born on May 19, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. God called her home on Friday, February 22, 2002. She received her formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. She graduated from Mergenthaler High School in 1979. In the year 2000. Valerie accepted Christ as her Lord and Savior, becoming a member of First Baptist Church of Backriver. Valerie began her career as an insurance underwriter at USFG, where she remained faithfully committed for fifteen years until she succumbed to the effects of her illness in 1996. She was fun loving, honest and loved to dance. Her love for the beauty of life was demonstrated through the creativity she exhibited in her fingernail artistry. She was a devoted daughter, sister and friend. Valerie was a remarkable young woman who was able to endure all that she suffered because of her steadfast faith. Regardless of how she was feeling, she always had a word of humor to uplift the spirits of everyone with whom she came in contact. One brother-in-law, Randolph Harris, preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn: her father, Clyde P. Taylor; one brother, Dwight Smith; five sisters, Pamela Barnes, Vanessa Taylor-Harris, Cheryl Taylor, Darlene Taylor and Yvette Taylor; one sister-in-law, one brother-in-law, two nieces; her devoted godmother, Evelyn Wooley; two devoted friends, Charlene Bennett and Janeen McLean; two godchildren, as well as a host of other relatives and friends.
