Her Imprint on the World

There was such joy that I experienced the first time I felt Valerie's kick in my stomach. We bonded from that kick and the weird things we ate-avocado and oranges or oatmeal cakes and taco salads. We ate all the time.

She had the love of our whole family. Her brother and three sisters fought over who would lie on my stomach to feel her move. Her brother staked his claim early as being he best friend because he always won the fight.

Her brother and sisters thought it was funny the way she often curled up in a knot on one side that made by stomach flat on the opposite side.

We only had Valerie for a moment, but we loved her with all of our hearts. Though we didn't want her to go, we're glad that Mooky the Bear went with her and that God and Grandma Valerie would be there to hold her.

Valerie left her imprint on the hearts of Amina Page-Thrower(mother)Brandon Page-Thrower(father),Amira Curry,Mikeala Gorham,Syia Curry(sisters),Za`Quan Page-Thrower(brother)Diane Young(great aunt),Adrienne Fleming, Constance McKnight(aunts) Zamekia and Gerald Whitaker(God parents) and a host of uncles,aunts,cousins and other relatives.

“ My sincere condolences to Brandon and Amina, it is hard enough to try to put into words the emotions you are dealing with right now. Unfortunately not too many words from friends and family can bring you a measure of relief. The source of comfort can only come from knowing the truth about our Creator -2 Corinthians 1:3-7. And know that Death was not his original purpose for us and that he will do away with it -1 Corinthians 15:26. Notice what he will do in the future for you and your family, “he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”(Rev 21:4). Again, my sincere condolences.

May God bless your family at this very difficult time. Please read your bible at John 5:28-29 that tells you - you will see your loved one again. Meanwhile may the God of comfort keep you all and help you to endure. Pray for the peace of God that excels all thoughts.
