

Vanessa Lee McLeaurin

March 21, 1960 - July 16, 2009

Vanessa L. McLeaurin, daughter of the late Aggie and William McLeaurin was born March 21, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. Vanessa attended and graduated from Patterson High School and continued her education and training to become a certified Medical Technician; also receiving many honors and certificates of excellence during the course of her higher learning. On November 11, 1980, Vanessa gave birth to her one and only joy, Trais A. Budd. Vanessa held various positions in the medical field. Her last place of employment was Johns Hopkins Hospital as a Medical Technician. In June 1996, Vanessa married the love of her life and her friend, McKinnely Coley. Vanessa accepted Christ into her life at an early age, with church membership at New Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church, Greater Gethsemane Miss. Baptist Church, and her last membership was with the Fire Filled Full Gospel Glorious Church, Inc. under the leadership of Archbishop C.L. Adams, until her health started declining. After a lengthy illness, Vanessa peacefully departed this earthly life on Thursday, July 16, 2009. As she was best known, leaves to celebrate her spirit, and her precious memory will be forever treasured by: her devoted son, Travis A. Budd, one sister, Stephanie Smith; one grandson, Travis D. Budd; two aunts, Mary Moore, Gennet Smith, both of Pembroke, N.C.; one godson, Martin McCleure-Berry; a devoted and faithful companion. Lamont Wiggins (Marty); and a host of cousins and many great friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Vanessa Lee McLeaurin

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My BEST FREIND , I WILL TRULY MISS YOU . BUT I WILL NEVER FORGET YOU . UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN . REST ON ,MY MY SISTER REST ON . NO WORRIES I WILL WATCH TRAVIS AS IF HE WAS MY SON . LOVE MICHELLE ALWAYS (MY NESSA)##imported-begin##Leslie Kennedy##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM