“ I send my deepest sympathy to the family. The death of a loved one is so hard to come to terms with, because we miss our loved ones and long to see them again. The bible says at 1st John 4,8 that God is love. He does not desire people to be hurting and in grief, and that is why he made the provision of the resurrection through his son Jesus Christ. One day all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those graves, and they will never have to die again. John 3:16 tells us that God loved the world so much, so that he gave his only-begotten son so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life. That was the greatest gift of love ever; to give us the chance to see our dead loved ones come back to life. Acts 24,15 lets us know that there is definitely going to be a resurrection, because the Apostle Paul said that his hope was in Jehovah God that this was going to occur. Noone, but Jehovah, through his son Jesus Christ can give us salvation, and reunite us with our dead loved ones, so please put all your faith and trust in him, because he will never dissappoint you. His word never fails. Isaiah 55:10,11##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ May I send my condolences to you all. Recently your circle of life was broken. I hope your days are filled with warm love from caring ones. Our heavenly father is there 7 times 24. There are so many promises there are awaiting us in the near future that will make our hearts over joyful, Ps. 145:16. I hope these few words will be positive to read. ##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my sympathy in the loss of Ms. Ford. It is comforting to know that our Grand Creator promises in his word the bible that he will 'swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from our eyes'. May you take comfort in this promise. ##imported-begin##T. Taylor##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible can be of a great source of comfort and hope. (Romans 15:4) One scripture that brings me much comfort is Acts 24:15 which declares- "There is going to be a resurrection." It is my hope that you also receive much comfort, hope and strength as you ponder over and read the loving hope found in the Bible. ##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
