

Vanessa Morgan

October 3, 1960 - August 11, 2014

VANESSA MORGAN, daughter of the late Whirley Morgan and late Charlotte Morgan, was born October 3, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. She quietly departed this life on Monday, August 11, 2014 after a lengthy illness at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

She received her education at Lake Clifton High School in Baltimore, Maryland. She was affectionately known by everyone as "Little Bit." She was employed at various jobs throughout her lifetime. Little Bit was always ready to share and had a giving heart. Her compassion and kind heart allowed her to extend her home to many that were in need.

One of the greatest joys of her life was the birth of her one and only son, Darell. There was nothing that she would not do for her son. Most of her time and energy was devoted to her son and her family. She really loved her family.

She enjoyed keeping a clean house and cooking while listening to music. Family outings always brought her great joy. She was not the life of the party, Little Bit was the party.

She leaves to cherish her fond memory: a loving and devoted son, Darell (Aisha) Yancey; grandchildren, Jawahn, Dawahn and Kendra; two brothers, Jerry L. and Larry D. Morgan; four nephews, Derrick, Terrell, Larry and Dedrick; two nieces, Carolyn and Pam. She had one goddaughter, Nytasha Waters; a loving and devoted uncle Leroy (Anita) M. Brown; special aunt, Ruby Patterson; many cousins; a special companion, Samuel L. Yancey; and devoted friend, Venia Cheatham; a host of other relatives and friends. Preceding her in death were her two brothers, Roger McNeil and Kevin Morgan.

“ Family,

Our Sister, Cousin, Friend, Mother, Aunt and Neighbor has gone to be with the Lord whom does not make mistakes. In the time of mourn, Understand, the Lord feel your pain also hear your cry and will dry your weeping eyes. We are praying for strength for everyone whom was touched by the lost of our loved one. "GONE BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN" I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Lord.

(2 Corinthians 5:8)

Respectfully,

Tayvon (Beaver) and Family

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he resurrected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from our heavenly Father bring some comfort to your family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
