“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your great loss. Jehovah God didnt desire to see us suffer in this way, because he is the source of all life, and he views death as our worst enemy. That is why he makes this promise to us. At 1st Cor 15:26 he promises, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Hid further purpose is to see that all the dead in his memory will come back to life again. John 5:28,29 speaks about this. It says: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." May these comforting scriptures bring peace to your hearts, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family. Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of you dear loved one. At this very difficult time may you find comfort in the beautiful promises recorded in God's word the Bible. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29, we read of an event that is very soon to take place. It tells us, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which ALL those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus Christ) voice and come out." What a wondrous time that will be. A time when we will have the opportunity to welcome our loved ones back to life, right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you draw comfort and find hope in your time of mourning from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation." “ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end##
