“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To The Family: I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. 1 Peter 5:7 let's us know that God knows what you are going through and he cares, it says, "...Throw all your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you." God's original purpose for creating humans wasn't for them to die but to live forever in a peaceful paradise and because he truly loves us, he assures us at Revelation 21: 4 that, "...he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.." He is going to accomplish his original purpose by means of his son Jesus Christ. Psalms 37:11 says, "But the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace."##imported-begin##Mertina Elliott##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sympathy. As you draw comfort from your precious memories, may you also find comfort in the hope expressed at Acts 24:15. That says, "...I have hope toward God...that there is going to be a resurrection..."##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ To The Family: I am sorry for your loss. Please accept my condolences. But the Bible also gives us hope that no human can give. John 5:28,29 speaks about a time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". Also, Isaiah 33:24 says there will be a time when "no resident will say, 'I am sick'". Thus, we have a hope of true happiness in the future and we wait on Jehovah God to fulfill his promises.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##
