

Velma Lee Stuckey

November 27, 1939 - December 9, 2014

Velma Lee Stuckey, departed her life, Tuesday, December 9, 2014 after her brief illness. Velma was born on November 27, 1939 in Bentonia, Mississippi. She was the 2nd daughter of Jacob and Izella Stuckey, who both preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her brother, Joe Berry. She was affectionately called “Bill” by all.

“Bill” left Mississippi and came to Baltimore in 1995 to live with her sisters, Bobbie Jones and “Peaches” (Audrey Sullivan). She enjoyed being in the company of her family and close friends, where hugs, kisses and expressions of love for one another flowed freely. “Bill” enjoyed dancing and listening to music. When her favorite songs came on, she would sing along with the song. Her favorite dance partner was her great great niece, Jayla McKinney. “Bill” was also known for finding things that you couldn’t find and she would put it up. We will dearly miss our sweet “Bill”.

Those that “Bill” leaves to cherish her memory are: 2 sisters, Bobbie Jones and Audrey Sullivan; brother, Samuel Price; 2 aunts, Frankie Lee Logan and Willie B. Owens; 2 nieces, Trenedia Reneé Davis (5 children) and Trenedia Nicole Archambault; great niece, Audrey McKinney (husband James); 2 nephews, Richard Stuckey (3 children) and Lloyd Davis (1 child); great nephews, Michael Banks and Devin Malone; and a host of family members and friends.
