

Velva Snead

May 30, 1925 - August 5, 2004

Velva Snead, daughter of the late Norman and Anne Snead, was born on May 30, 1925 in Accomac, Virginia. She suddenly departed this life on August 5, 2004. Velva received her formal education in the Virginia Public School System. At the age of sixteen, Velva moved to Baltimore, Maryland. In Baltimore, she met the late Isiah Davis and from this union three beautiful daughters were born, Rose Moulton, Beverly Davis and Karen Snead. Velva was affectionately known as “Mama” by everyone that came in contact with her, and experienced her love. She also gracefully touched the lives of her friends at the Zion Towers. “Mama” was well known for her illustrious fried apples, rice pudding and baked macaroni and cheese. She also enjoyed the pleasure of her family during holiday gatherings. “Mama” never forgot any birthdays or the times of their birth. Poised in her famous black sweater, “Mama” often called family members during the evenings to gossip about a variety of topics. While giving directions from her chair, “Mama” enjoyed her favorite past-time of chattering with friends and watching the Lifetime Television Network. She leaves to cherish her memory: three daughters, Rose Moulton, Beverly Davis and Karen Snead; one son-in-law, Howard Moulton; six granddaughters, Renee, Stacey, Vernell, Candace, Kisha, Kendra and Charmika; one grandson, Kevin Eubanks; six great grandchildren, Chamia, Keon, Brandon, Corey, Khalil and David III; Annie Mae Hamm, a devoted caregiver and friend. And a host of other family and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Velva Snead

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Velva Snead

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the Snead Family: I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. I know that you have many wonderful memories of Ms. Velva Snead to cherish. Almighty God, too has a "book of remembrance" {Malachi 3: 16} and he has promised to "resurrect" our dearly loved ones into a paradise. {Acts 24: 15 Luke 23:43} Yes, she will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Dear Stacy and Family, So sorry to hear of your lost. I know your hearts are heavy right now, but remember that "earth has no sorrow that Heaven can not heal." I could not be with you today, but you are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Terry and Marion Carter##imported-begin##Marion T. Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM