

Vera Gladys Bernard

June 16, 1929 - August 1, 2011

VERA GLADYS MONAHAN BERNARD, daughter of the late Randolph and Odessa Owens Manahan, was born in Baltimore City on Sunday, June 16, 1929. On Monday, August 1, 2011, she passed peacefully into eternal rest. Her two sisters, Vivian and Rose preceded her.

Vera's formative years were spent on West Biddle Street and it was in this area that she attended the Baltimore City Public School System. She was a graduate of Frederick Douglass High School.

During the 1960s she was employed at Hutzler Brother's Department Store in downtown Baltimore. Subsequently she worked as a claims adjuster for the Social Security Administration, a position from which she retired after twenty years of service.

Although she was a woman with a sharp tongue and biting wit, Vera enjoyed socializing and participating in group activities. For approximately twenty years she was a member of the Wrens Pinochle Club and was a fierce and ferocious competitor. Vera also enjoyed league bowling and playing Pokeno. Her taste in music was eclectic, ranging from the blues to Motown, Contemporary Gospel and smooth jazz. In later years as her mobility decreased. Vera enjoyed traveling with her son to Delaware, Atlantic City and Charles Town, West Virginia.

She was married to Lloyd H. Bernard and a son and daughter were born of their union. Her survivors include: her devoted son, Lloyd Grandison Bernard of Baltimore; her daughter, La Verne Gladys Bernard Webb and her grandson, Christopher Webb both of California. Also celebrating her life is her life is her goddaughter, Rhonda Hollie, with whom she enjoyed.

“I thank my God upon every remembrance of you.” (phil. 1:3 KJV)

“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. May all be comforted by the wonderful hope expressed at Revelation 21:4: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

A. Robinson - August 09, 2011 at 04:55 AM

“ Trusting in Jehovah's Promises will give you comfort, courage and strength to walk this path. His Word will light your way, His Peace will fill your heart and His Love will hold you gently. With Deepest Sympathy.

(Psalm 55:22) Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.

M. Johnson - August 08, 2011 at 10:03 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
