

Vera Jackson Boone

April 4, 2012 - November 16, 2012

VERA M. JACKSON-BOONE, daughter of the late Joseph A. and Florence Footé Jackson, was born on April 4, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Friday, November 16, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

She married Robert Edward Boone, Jr., who preceded her in death; and out of this union one daughter was born, Denise Ann.

Vera received her education at Eastern High School, Morgan State University and the University of Baltimore. She began to work for the Social Security Administration and after many years pursued her love to educate children and adults. She worked for Baltimore City Public Schools until her retirement.

She was an active member of St. Veronica's Roman Catholic Church and the Archdiocese of Baltimore. Vera served as a member of the Ladies Sodality, Catholic Daughters of America, Parish Council, Young Adults, Sunday School, RCIA, Eucharistic Ministry and a variety of other organizations within the parish and the southwest regional area.

Vera possessed a deep love and commitment for history, and with that love she wanted everyone she met to be aware of their Afrocentricity. She could always be counted on to speak about our heritage. The month of February, Kwanzaa and calling on our elders were very dear to her.

To all who knew her, she was a loving, caring and giving woman. She would do anything for her friends and those she loved.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Denise Boone-Mitchell; two granddaughters, Victoria and Christina; son-in-law, James; several devoted extended family members, The Lloyd family, Patsy Wright, Joyce Collins, Cheryl and Justin Dorsey, Denaya Barnes; and a host of godchildren, other family and friends.

“ There are no words that I can say that will ease the pain of the death of your little girl but I hope these words from God's word the Bible will help. ".....And Jehovah God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." (Revelation 21:.3, 4) So sorry for your loss!!!
