

Vera Deloris Williams

December 1, 1942 - December 6, 2001

Vera Delores Williams was born on December 1, 1942, in Baltimore, Maryland. She was the fourth of eight children born to the late Theodore E. and Corrine Brown and widow of the late Levie C. Williams after 39 years. Vera was a graduate of Douglass High School and she also attended Catonsville Community College. She was a dedicated employee, who recently retired from the Social Security Administration after 33 years. Vera was a loyal and faithful member and usher of the Gillis Memorial Christian Community Church in excess of 20 years. Vera made numerous friends wherever she went. She was selfless and strong woman, a dedicated Christian never wavering in her faith, whom you could always depend on to help whenever family or friends needed her. She was always a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. On Thursday, December 6, 2001, after a period of illness in the University of Maryland Hospital, God called Vera home from her earthly labor to external rest. She leaves to mourn their loss and cherish her memory four children: Regina Williams, Carla Ausby, Dwayne Williams and Alisa Richardson; two sons-in-laws, Kevin Richardson and Gerald Ausby; one daughter-in-law, Yvette Williams; twelve grandchildren, one goddaughter, Lasha Jukes; four brothers, two sisters, four sister-in-laws, two brother-in-laws, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and a host of friends and associates who will sincerely miss her.
