

Vera Hall

April 4, 1941 - March 20, 2014

VERA M. HALL, daughter of the late Loretta Brown and the late James Forts, was an angel in our midst. She was born on April 4, 1941 in Baltimore, Maryland. The gates of heaven were opened to received her on March 20, 2014.

She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. Vera touched the lives of many children through the occupational field of daycare. She often opened her home and heart as she took great pride in being a foster care mother.

She was a faithful Christian and devoted member of Faith Evangelical Lutheran Church for over thirty years.

Vera made friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. Her smile captivated everyone who encountered her, and it had the uncanny ability to calm and comfort. She was a true friend who loved to travel and go on shopping trips. She was also a loving, caring and devoted mother.

Her love was always cherished by her husband Albert P. Hall, who preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn:

her two sons, Murriel and Purnell; five daughters, Sabrina, Vera, Lorraine, April and Tracy; sisters, Valerie Brown and the late Antoinette Miller; brother, the late Harold Brown; four stepchildren, Gloria, Doris, and the late Joyce and Elmer; foster daughter, Frances Hill (Pebbles); son-in-law, Rickie Cooper; daughter-in-law, the late Karen Hall; twentyfive grandchildren, thirty-five great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ oh my god I just stumbled on this website, I was looking at the telephone number for March Funeral Home, and I see my mother's beautiful picture, it really messed me up for a minute... but then it made me remember no matter what I did my mother was always creeping up on me finding out about it some way or the other so then it made me laugh and smile I'm going to miss my mother so much but I know that she's in a better place feeling her best looking her best and that's good enough for me. I'm okay today with your departure momma I know that God will continue to watch over and take care of you

“ To the Ware family and friends, sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. At a painful time like this, comfort from God's word may ease the pain. Let me share with you 1Corinthians 15:26..."And the last enemy death, is to be brought to nothing." What a wonderful promise from Jehovah! To find more of his promises, read your Bible daily and take in his accurate knowledge(John 17:3). He is the only true God. My condolences.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.

“ My sincere condolences to your family. Death of a loved one is never easy to deal with and our heavenly Father knows this very well. That is why he made this promise in his word the Holy Bible that very soon death will be swallowed up so that we will not experience that pain anymore. This is found your in Bible at Isaiah 25:8. His wonderful son, Jesus Christ not only promised that there will be a resurrection of those that died; (John 5:28, 29) but he also demonstrated it when he ressurected his dear friend Lazarus from death; (John Chapter 11).

I hope that during this difficult time these and other delightful promises from Jehovah God bring some comfort to your family.
