

Vera Smoot

June 17, 1936 - October 12, 2001

Vera Smoot, daughter of the late Martin L. Sr. and Rozella Thompson, was born on June 17, 1936 in Durham, North Carolina. She departed this life on Friday, October 12, 2001 after a lengthy illness. She received her education at Dunbar High School in Baltimore and also attended Coppin State College for 3 ½ years. After various jobs C&P Telephone Company employed Vera. Vera was a member of New Covenant Tabernacle where she served as and Usher until her illness. She was a very loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Vera leaves to cherish her memory; her husband, Charles S. Smoot (Woody she called him); one son, Darryl M. Smoot; one granddaughter, Imani N. Smoot; one brother, Martin L Thompson, Jr.; two sister-in-laws, Rosalind D. Schwind and Vanessa Wilson; Three brother-in-laws, William Smoot, Norman E. Wilson and Pastor Thomas R. Schwind; one aunt-in-law, Carolyn A. Melvin; one uncle-in-law, John Thompson; a cousin and best friend, Ruby Little; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends! I'm Free! I'm free, Praise the Lord, I'm free No longer bound, No more chains holding me My soul is resting; it's such a blessing Oh Praise the Lord! Hallelujah, I'm Free.

“ To the Loving Family of Mrs. Vera Smoot, Praise God, Home at Last. Vera left a mark on my heart. She was a Godly woman who lived for the Lord in her loving actions, words, and deeds. I enjoyed talking with her about her beloved granddaughter, Imani, and sharing the joy she had in warm weather! Her smile was so genuine and true...she always made me feel special. Now, she rests in the arms of the Lamb of Life. Lift her husband, Woody, up in prayer. May God strengthen him and help him to find purpose and comfort in his daily walk without his beloved soul mate. Love,
