“ Vera was like a little sister to me. We grew up on Francis Street together and attended Gethsemane Baptist Church. Everyone on Francis Street was like a big family, and each person showed love to each other. Vera had such a fun-loving personality, and she spread joy with everyone she met. May God hold her in the palm of his hand and embrace her as she enters into her eternal rest.

God bless and embrace the family with peace, comfort, and continuous love as we all go through this period of mourning for a life well lived and the joy that we all felt knowing Vera.
