

Vergé Collins

February 1, 1916 - February 4, 2011

VERGE COLLINS, was born to the late Samuel and Corrine Collins on February 1, 1916. On February 4, 2011 God, in His Divine Wisdom, called "Daddy" home to rest.

Verge was born and raised in Arkansas by his aunt, Ida Ambrose. He was the husband of the late Luebertha Collins and from this union they had ten children. He was preceded in death, by his children, Odessa, Donald, Linda and Ray and grandchildren, Shawn, Deanna, Damon and Thomas.

Verge was employed at the Baltimore Waterfront as a longshoreman for forty years. He received an award for the best Gang Carrier in Local #921. Vergé accepted the Lord Jesus Christ and was nourished in the spirit of charity Community Church of God. Later he married Mattie Bell Heights. He has a quiet spirit. Mr. Vergé Collins enjoyed watching baseball, westerns and he loved riding. He was a man amongst men.

Verge leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, Mrs. Mattie Bell Height Collins, four daughters, Catherine Hegie, Betty Collins, Mrs Barbara Powers and Mrs. Sylvia Burrow; two sons, Vergé and Maurice Collins; daughter-in-law, Mrs. Roxy Collins; two sons-in law, Roger Burrow Frank Powers; twenty-three grandchildren, forty-six great-grandchildren, eleven great-great-grandchildren; four sisters-in-law, Ms. Eva Clay, Ms. Rebecca Brown, Ms.

Lillie power and Mrs. Josephine Height; The stepgrandsons, A very dear; and close friend of the family, Mrs. Alma Hammond.
