

Vergetta "Pat" Mealy

December 19, 1945 - April 15, 2020

Vergetta Mealy, affectionately known as Pat was born December 19, 1945 in Richmond, Va., to the late Louis R. Mealy Sr. and Louise A. Hayes. From the young age of 18 months to 14 years she was raised in the home of Adam H. and Mary C. White for whom she gave credit to the foundation of her life through the Christian morals and values that she developed while in their care. At the age of 14 Pat decided to live with her biological mother, sisters and brothers. A puppy is not aware it has a lot of learning and growing to do. She thought that freedom and lack of concern and discipline for minor children that the grass was greener on that side of the track. She began writing poetry at a very young age due to the hardship she endured from mother and siblings. Pat received the National Library of Poetry Editor's Award and the United States Achievement Academy Award for poetry written.

Although Pat was educated through the Richmond Public School System, she had to pull her head out of the sand and get back on track. She picked-up her reigns and never looked back. She received her two-year degree (cum laude) and Career Studies Certificate in, Substance Abuse Counseling Education from J. Sergeant Reynolds Community College. Pat was a member of the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society: and joined East End. Chapter 79 of the Eastern Star. Pat retired from Philip Morris U.S.A. After 26 1/2 years.

Pat was preceded in death by her daughter, Melvaughan E. Cottman, brother

Louis R. Mealy Jr- and sister Delores C. Jenkins.

*My deepest symphony.
Praise God she is free with our Lord. I worked with Pat and Shirley at Philip Morris although I worked for ARA Food Service. Pat and Shirley dresses me up for a date and I will always remember that. No proposal but a fun memory. Need more people like them in the world. God comfort all during this time.*

“ Ms. Pat will always have a special place in my heart. She was my neighbor, my babysitter, my friend, and she was family. Ms. Jean my mom and I think of you and yours as family and this will never change. My heart hurts! I wish I was home. But know that I am here for you in any way I can. My mom is too! Love you all and I am praying and sending hugs from Atlanta!

I know she is sitting down in the front yard of heaven with my dad having a nice cold one!
