

Verna Seivers

February 10, 1937 - May 6, 2018

Verna Laurretta Seivers, was born on February 10, 1937 to the late Edith Seivers (Johnson) and Frank Seivers.

Her education was received at Sollers Point High School. She became a nurse and retired from nursing to help take care of her nephew who preceded her in death.

She loved to get her grandchildren and take them to the movies and just spend time with them when they were young. Her son Essex Aaron Seivers (who preceded her in death) wrote her a poem for Mother's Day that she loved.

Suddenly, on May 6, 2018, the Angel of Death came and took our loved one away from the turmoils of this earth. Verna leaves to mourn their loss: a loving and devoted son, Bryant L. Seivers; two sisters, Cynthia Owens and Edith Seivers; daughter-in-law, Bernadette Robinson Seivers; eight grandchildren, Bryant Seivers Jr., Montoya Allen, Aaron Seivers, Daron Seivers, Kenneth Seivers, Ikem Loudon, Tia Hopkins and Cheryl Hopkins; devoted niece, Pamela Neverdon; nephew, Bernard Allen; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
