

Verna M. Williams

October 7, 1949 - June 12, 2020

Verna Matilda Williams transitioned surrounded in love by her family at home on June 12, 2020. She was born to the late Bessie (Jenet) Baylor on October 7, 1949 in Caroline County, VA. She spent her formative years with her grandparents, the late Richard and Bessie Williams. And clearly, their influence of the family trait of loyalty and love was passed on to her - because family was everything to her! Her heart was so big that she had enough love to go around for everyone. Verna was preceded in death by her adopted brother, Kevin Miller.

She joined Jericho Baptist Church at an early age. Her faith in God remained strong until the very end. After graduating Union High School in 1969, she attended business school in Washington, DC. Upon her completion, she worked for the Virginia State Department in Richmond, VA for years. However, her true passion was helping others - so she entered the healthcare industry. She served as a home healthcare aid to countless clients. Her love for helping others was clearly in display with her own family. Vee, also known as Vee Bug, was Johnny on the Spot! You could always count on her to show up with a pot of soup, some fresh caught fish or something from someone's garden to share. Her kindness was always on display and she could be whatever you needed her to be - the mother figure, the big sister, the aunt, the MeeMaw, the cook, the coach, or simply just the friend that was needed.

She absolutely loved fishing, Anywhere she would find water, she would cast her rod. The only thing she loved more than fishing was her grandson. One of the happiest days of her life was when she finally got her very own grandson, Joshua. He remained the apple of her eye. Although she only birthed three children and only had one grandchild, she was the mother figure - the Madea - to so many more including Charnette Jones-Robinson (William), Donnita Henley, Antowan Johnson (Kenya), Katrina Anderson (Harold). Every friend that her children bought home became her child and their children became her grandchildren!

She leaves to cherish so many great memories two daughters, Carolyn Robinson (Nathaniel), LaShena Williams; one son, Charles Williams; grandson, Joshua Robinson; sisters, Shirley Daniel, Velma Hatcher (Charles), Marion and Thomasina Baylor; Aunt, Hazel Smith; Uncle, Lewis Williams (Marion), several devoted nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Her kindness and her willingness to help others will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.
