“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences during this difficult time. Even though it will take some time for the grief to lessen, you can find comfort in the Bible-based promise of the resurrection. Jesus gave us a glimpse of his authority to raise the dead when he was here on earth. That's why we can be confident in the Scripture at John 11:25: " I am the resurrection and the life. He that excercises faith in me, even though he dies,will come to life."##imported-begin##April Robinson##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. The Bible holds out promises that we can put our complete faith and trust in. One such promise is found at 1 Corinthians 15:26 where we are told that the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing. May you put faith and trust in this promise because that is a wonderful hope to look forward to. Again, please accept my condolences on the passing of your loved one.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ I send my condolences to the family for the loss of your loved one. It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. However, the Bible gives us a hope. John 5:28,29 describes a time when "all those in their memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Kendra A##imported-end##
