

Vernedetta Antoinette Little

May 16, 1952 - February 24, 2015

The world became a little less sweeter place February 24, 2015, when VERNEDETTA ANTOINETTE LITTLE departed this world. She was born on May 16, 1952 to the late Frank Little and Addie Jones Little in Baltimore, Maryland.

She attended Baltimore City Public Schools, graduating from Patterson High in 1970. She enjoyed dancing, shopping and watching the Ravens and the Orioles. Bernie was a die-hard Ravens fan, always calling her cousins in Cleveland, Ohio rubbing it in when the Ravens won. When the Ravens and Browns played each other it was really on, they knew they were going to get a call from Baltimore and wouldn't answer the phone knowing they would be harassed by everyone at the house.

Although she had no children of her own, she had two goddaughters, Brittany DeVaughn (who preceded her in death) and Rodnay Camphor "Roxy" whom she loved dearly. They were the loves of her life.

She was baptized at an early age, frequently attending Good Tidings Baptist Church. "Bernie" or "Verm" as she was affectionately called by many, was a quiet and giving person, always giving a helping hand to those in need.

Bernie was employed by French Bray Printing for twenty-nine years. She then went to work at K&W Finishing in 2003 and was there until her untimely death.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two devoted cousins, William (Butch) Rice and Angela (Pig) Poole; two step-sisters, Lynnette (Nette) Boyd and Antionette (Annette) Camphor; one goddaughter, Rodnay (Roxy) Camphor; a host of cousins from Cleveland, Ohio-Robin, Reds, Shawn, Charmaine, Robert, Tony, Francis, Chuck, Jamie, Tub, David, Candy, and Kellie; the (little) cousins in Baltimore; devoted friends, Thomas (Tutt) McCoy, Deborah Bullock, Denise Matthews, Thelma Baltimore and Janie Walker; loving co-workers, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am extremely sorry for your loss. I can not imagine the pain you have had to endure. May the God of comfort be with you now and in times to come. God's Word the bible promises the hope of seeing our dead loved ones again. That promise is at John 28,29 and also at Revelations 21: 3,4

“ I'm sorry for your loss. May the Little family and friends find comfort from the words found at Rev. 21:3,4: "[God] will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

Please accept my condolences.
