

Vernel Barco

February 25, 1955 - May 7, 2009

VERNEL BARCO, son of the late Elzia Barco and Marian Barco Bunch, was born on February 25, 1955 in Elizabeth City North Carolina. He departed this life on May 7, 2009. He graduated from Northeastern High School in Elizabeth City, N.C. He continued his education at Elizabeth City State University, receiving a bachelors degree. Vernel joined the U.S. military in 1975 and served his country honorably until 1980. After serving in the military, Vernel worked as an educator at many levels. His last appointment was educating inmates at GEO Correctional Center. Vernel fathered, cared for, and dedicated himself to his son Christopher Barco. Christopher lived with his father his entire life. Vernel also shared a loving relationship with Heather Delagdo, and out of this union a daughter was born, Christine Barco. His love for her could only be compared with his love for Christopher. Vernel accepted Jesus at an early age. He worked in several churches throughout his life. He served as deacon at Brown's Memorial Baptist Church before accepting a position in Lawrenceville, Va., where he continued his Christian duties. Vernel cared for people, and loved to serve God. He was a wonderful father and a great friend to all. He leaves to mourn: his son, Christopher Barco; his daughter, Christine Barco; his fiancée, Heather Delgado; one sister, Teresa Pinckney; two brothers, Elzia Barco and Percy Bunch; two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I would like to convey my sincere condolence for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection (John5:28-29) to life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
