

Vernell Laverne Wimberley

May 16, 1945 - September 1, 2021

Vernell Laverne Wimberley was born May 16, 1945 in Blackstone, Virginia to Albert Tucker and Vernell Tucker. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, Walter Wimberley and son Rodrick Wimberley.

Vernell received her formal education and graduated from Luther H. Foster High School. She furthered her education at Virginia State University in Petersburg, Virginia.

Vernell as she was affectionally called accepted Christ as her Savior at an early age and was united with Spring Hill Baptist Church.

Vernell was united in holy matrimony to Walter Wimberley. They were blessed with four children. She was employed by the school system until she was married. In her leisure she loved traveling, working in the yard and gardening. However she loved spending time with her grandchildren which were the extension of her heartbeat.

She leaves cherished memories to her three beloved sons, Derrick, Vincent and Michael; eleven adored grandchildren, great-grandchildren; brothers, Larry and Bryant; sisters, Corlis and Patricia; many nieces, nephews, cousins and dear friends.

I extend my sincere condolences to the family of the late Vernell & her son. To the family whom I have known down through the yrs, Vernell's late sister Mary & I were the best of friends throughout high school. Whenever I visited with Vernell's family they all were such sweet & lovely people & still are to this day. Corlis, Patricia, Larry & Bryant my heart ❤️ bleeds for you all. May Vernell & son R.I.P. I plead the blood ☐ of Jesus over the family, he will give them the comfort they need during this most difficult time. God Bless you all. Sorrowfully, submitted by Shirley Harper Wilson.

“ I only had the pleasure of speaking to Ms. Vernell a couple times on the phone, but she had such a warm sweet spirit. I wanted to meet her in person, but didn't have the opportunity. I was extremely close to her son Rodrick who passed only 10 days before her. I miss him immensely. I wish I could speak to him again, have one last conversation. God bless their souls together in heaven.

“ Aunt Verne, I remember all the times we laughed until we cried at all the silly things we used to talk about on the phone. I remember the stories, upon stories you told of your adventures with Uncle Walter and the boys. You always had a good story, and you always smelled so good. You never did tell me what perfume you used to wear when I asked you. You always said " It's a secret" and then giggle a little. That giggle, if anyone knows you, they know that giggle and how you would say something funny right after, then go into yet another giggle fit. We had some good times together, I will truly miss you, I love you, still.
