

Vernetta Brown

September 25, 1946 - January 30, 2002

Vernetta Grant Brown was born on September 25, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Vernell Grant and Mary Elizabeth Grant. She departed this life on January 28, 2002 following a brief illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1965. Upon completion of her education, she was employed by the Social Security Administration in Woodlawn, Maryland and at the USF&G Insurance Company in downtown Baltimore City. In 1980 she married Will C. Brown, Jr., and from this union God gave her two sons, Martin Eugene Brown and Will C. Brown III. She raised and nurtured her sons as God's loving individuals who grew to be productive citizens. Vernetta became a Christian at an early age. She attended Bibleway Freewill Baptist Church and later became a member of Rhema Tabernacle Church where Pastor Rodney Richardson presides. During the services she attended she could be heard singing to the glory of God. She was a devoted God-fearing woman who lived her beliefs. Anyone who knew her knew she loved the Lord. In her earlier years, Vernetta enjoyed singing the gospel. She sang with several gospel groups. Her favorite song was "The Storm Is Passing Over." She leaves to mourn: two sons, Will C. Brown III and Martin E. Brown; three sisters, Ruth N. Rouse, Gradie M. Goins, and Lorraine E. Cornish; two brothers, Timothy J. Grant, and the late Vernon S. Grant; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and loving family and friends.
