

Vernetta H. Robinson

September 30, 1924 - August 10, 2009

VERNETTA H. ROBINSON, daughter of the late Hillery and Bertha Hull, was born on September 30, 1924 in Salisbury, Maryland. She departed this life on Monday, August 10, 2009, after a brief illness. She received her education at Salisbury High School in Salisbury, Maryland. At the age of eighteen she moved to Baltimore and began working at Glenn L. Martin. She left Glenn L. Martin to pursue a career in nursing. She began working at Rosewood State Hospital for about five years before leaving Rosewood to work at Levindale, and this is where she remained until she retired. She was a Jehovah's Witness for about thirty years at Mount Washington Congregation. She married James Brown, and out of that union one child was born, Steven. She later married James Guyton who preceded her in death. In 1980 she married James Robinson who also preceded her in death. Vernetta made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted family person. She leaves to mourn: her son, Steen Brown; daughter-in-law, Patricia Brown; grandson, Steven II; and two great-grandchildren, Autumn and Darius; four sisters, Mamie Bratten, Annie Dent, Marva Johnson, Tyre Padgett; three brothers, George Hull, Hillery Hull Jr., Philip Hull (three brothers preceded her in death, Jacob Hull, James Hull and Ortis Hull); nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family, Please accept my sincere sympathy. It is truly unfortunate that we have to experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. This is a sorrow that God promises will one day be no more (Rev 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise may you find comfort from, "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who will comfort you in all your tribulations."
