

Vernice Armstead

December 7, 1937 - December 10, 2008

Vernice Armstead, the daughter of the late James and Edna Frisby, was born December 7, 1936 in Edgemere, Maryland. She departed this life on December 10, 2008 after a brief illness. Vernice received her education in the Baltimore public schools. She held various part-time jobs after school and she worked for the Church Home and Hospital for thirty-seven and a half years. After retiring from Church Home, she held a position at Sears for six years. Vernice received Christ at an early age and became a member of the New Friendship Baptist Church; she later attended Bibleway Baptist Church. She was married and out of this union she had one loving and devoted daughter, Shirley Armstead. Vernice made numerous friends and will be sincerely missed. She was a devoted mother and loved her family. She liked to decorate, travel and gardening. Vernice always kept herself very neat and loved to dress. Vernice leaves to mourn; her daughter, Shirley Armstead, Tony L. Betts and Brian A. Betts (whom she raised as her sons); one other son, Terry; great-granddaughter, Donaija Atkins; granddaughter, Tyisha; grandson, Andre, great-niece, Shantele; stepson, Andre Hawkins; very special friend, James T. Hawkins; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Vernice Armstead

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ I send my deep condolences to the family at this most difficult time. May you be comforted by the hope of the resurrection. This is Jehovah God's means for raising the dead back to life. He has given his Son Jesus all authority to resurrect the dead. John 5:25-29 tells us about this authority Christ received from his father, and it also promises: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things will have a resurrection of life." That is Jehovah's promise; a promise we can trust in, because he sent us his most beloved Son, Jesus, the Amen, to make all things possible. Vernice will one day come to life again, along with millions of others when God's kingdom comes and his will is done on earth; just as it is in heaven. I hope that the resurrection hope helps to comfort you, and help you to cope in the days ahead.###imported-begin### Johnson###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family and friends, I offer my condolences. It truly is unfortunate that we must experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. May you find comfort and strength from the "God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) who promises at Isaiah 66:13, "Like a man whom his own mother keeps comforting, so I myself shall keep comforting you people."###imported-begin###Gwen Winston###imported-end###

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Revelation 21:3-5 lovingly tells us of the time when sickness,pain, sorrow and death will be done away with. In addition, Acts 24:15 declares "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort, hope and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I'm sorry to hear of your loss and I offer my love. I extend my heartfelt and deepest sympathy to you and yours, may God Bless you and your family. Aunt Vernice was always sweet to me.##imported-begin##Cathy Cook##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May Almighty God Jehovah by means of his son Christ Jesus comfort you until our 'last enemy death is brought to nothing'. (1Cor. 15:26)##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM