

Vernice Elizabeth Barnard

January 29, 1948 - December 21, 2018

BENEDICTION

RECESSIONAL

Just because you cannot see me does not mean I am not there,
Just because I am in heaven, does not mean I do not care;
I often see you crying, you often say my name,
I want to hold you tight, I want to ease your pain.
It's easy for me, for I know heaven's real,
If you knew the truth, how much better would you feel;
One day we will meet again, but only when the time is right,
When you step out of the darkness, I will be standing in the light.

Love, Vernice

Celebration of Life Order of Service

A Time to be Born

Vernice Elizabeth Barnard was born on January 29, 1948 in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was the second child, born to Ernest and Ethel Nunnally.

A Time to Learn

Vernice was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1967. After graduating, she was employed by USF&G. Vernice was then selected for a position with the Food and Drug Administration, which was the beginning of her government career. She was later promoted as a hearing specialist with the Social Security Administration and retired in 2007 after many years of loyal service.

A Time to Serve

Vernice loved the Lord and gave her life to Christ at an early age. She was baptized at Ebenezer Baptist Church and later became a member of Greater Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. She was a member of Northside Baptist Church until her passing.

A Time to Live

Vernice loved life and lived it to its fullest. She had the unique ability to brighten one's day with a smile or laugh. She always acknowledged birthdays, anniversaries and special occasions in people's lives. She also sent text messages with encouraging and uplifting thoughts for the day. Vernice faithfully studied God's Word. She enjoyed going on lunch dates, planting flowers in her garden and keeping up with her favorite TV shows. Vernice loved to travel with family and go on long road trips. She enjoyed taking photos and videos to capture memories.

A Time to Rest

Vernice received the "final call" for a job well done on December 21, 2018 at Gilchrist Center. She was surrounded by her dedicated family.

A Time to Love

Vernice was preceded in death by her loving parents, Ethel May and Ernest Weldon Nunnally Sr., and her caring brother Ernest Weldon Nunnally Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memory: her husband, Tyrone Barnard; one devoted daughter, Tracey Curtis; one son-in-law, Kevin Curtis; two grandchildren, Sean and Nicole; three siblings, Mildred Wade, Daniel Nunnally, Sr. and Kim Nunnally

Williams (Rupert); one uncle, Everett Nunnally; two aunts, Marion Mitchell and Romaine Thaxton; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends; and granddaughter in love, Simone Cunningham.

“ To the Family,
At a time like this, reflection on the promises of Almighty God is very comforting. Like the promise at Isaiah 25:8 to swallow up death forever. May these thoughts encourage you during your time of bereavement. Our condolences to you and your family.
