

Vernon Brown

November 13, 1943 - September 22, 2005

As the earth prepared itself for another autumn, heaven prepared itself to receive another soul. On September 22, 2005, VERNON BROWN departed this earthly life and began his journey home to the Creator. Vernon was a native of Baltimore born to the late Frank and Mable Brown. Vernon, affectionately known as "Doc" to all of those who loved him, was a man of simple pleasures. His life can be described best by one of his favorite songs "I Did It My Way". And that is exactly what Vernon did, lived life his way while touching the lives of many people around him. Vernon was a father, son, brother, uncle, and friend. He was a devoted companion and confidant, always giving support to others in times of trouble and sorrow. In his unassuming manner he gave much to all but asked little in return. If you ever confided in him you could rest assured that your secret was safe. He was truly the "Doc" helping people through difficult times by his presence alone. He leaves to mourn: his daughter, Carolyn; three sons, Ali, Eric, and Shaun; twenty-three grandchildren; one aunt, Doris; two brothers, Daniel and Garrison; three sisters, Vilma, Katherine, and Mable; three brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, and a host of other relatives.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family of Vernon Brown: I would like to express condolences to the family for your loss. Death brings no comfort to any of us but the bible does help us in our time of need. Jesus speaks of a time when all those in the memorial tomb will hear his voice and come out as brought out in John 5:28,29 to a resurrection of life. Jesus also speaks about a paradise right here on earth as Luke 23:42,43 brings out, would you not enjoy seeing a time went we can see our love ones again? Jehovah God who is the father of all tender mercies and comfort as 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 brings out will comfort you and your family in your time of need. Trust Jehovah to help you as stated in Proverbs 3:5,6 says. Did you know that you and your family have a opportunity to find out more as John 17:3 and Revelation 21:3,4 talks about this hope and death? Please enjoy your memories of Vernon Brown as they will bring you comfort as this letter I hope will bring a small measure of comfort and hope to you and your family, always remember he will not be forgotten by Jehovah God and Jesus Christ as Malachi 3:16 says.
