

Vernon Commodore

December 5, 2003 - April 29, 2004

Vernon Larry Commodore, son of Vernon Commodore and Sierra Watkins, was born December 5, 2003 at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Lil' Vernon was a very happy baby. He also had a cry that will never be forgotten. He also had a game that he loved to play, his father called it noseeyes. It always made him smile. He loved to eat a lot and also loved to be held. He will always be in memory and never be forgotten. He leaves to mourn: his great-grandmother, Trina Watkins; two grandmothers, Natasha Watkins and Josephine Washington; a host of aunts, uncles and cousins.

“ My sincere condolences on the loss of this precious child. It's so unfair that death has the power to take our dear loved ones away from us. However, take solace in the promise that one day "He will swallow up death forever...and will certainly wipe tears from all faces..."(Isaiah 25:8) Continue to draw comfort from Almighty God and know that he cares for you.(1 Peter 5:6,7)##imported-begin##Sandy Sloane##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Words cannot express the pain that you are going through in the loss of this darling child. You can find comfort, though, in the scriptures. Please read Isaiah 25:8,9;John 5:28,29 and Revelation 21:3,4. Hopefully you will find the strenght you need in these scriptures to cope with your loss.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Vernon has such a happy smile. It is so tragic when a baby dies. Please accept my condolences on the loss of such a dear loved one. Please draw comfort from the Bible's promise at Isaiah 26:19 'Your dead ones will live...they will rise up.' The Bible promises a resurrection of our loved ones right here on a Paradise earth in the very near future.Please read Psalm 37:29 which says: 'The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will reside forever upon it.' I pray these promises give you comfort and strength.##imported-begin##S. Jackson##imported-end##

“ just a brief message to say that i hope that you are still having success in dealing with your grief since it's such a long and persistant journey. i lost my one year old grandson a year ago and i find that it is always nice to hear from someone who understands. there is a wonderful hope that the bible gives for the resurrection of our dear loved ones. john 5:28-29. it also tells of a time when there will be no more sickness or sorrow, this, along with a paradise earth with everything that we need to sustain us and more. the bible tells us that crime and violence will no longer exist during that time. a wonderful promise from a God who cares. psalms 72:12-14, 16. if you would like to know more about these promises please contact me at my e-mail address: kic2@verizon.net or talk to one of Jehovah's witnesses as you see them on the street or at your door.##imported-begin##kathy commander##imported-end##
