

Vernon Dale Coverton

November 1, 1953 - November 6, 2015

Vernon Dale Coverton, known by many as “Twin” or “Danny” was born in Richmond, Virginia on November 1, 1953. He was the third child, half of a devious set of twins, of Robert and Della Coverton. His earthly passage concluded on November 6, 2015 at 3:49 p.m., holding the hands of his loved ones.

Danny was educated in Henrico County Schools, where he played football for many years, along with his lifetime friend and constant competitor, his twin “Donald”. His skills were honed from a very early age playing baseball, football, kickball and any other ball available with his many cousins under the fierce coaching of his Uncle David. His Dad and Mom could assure that things got done if they threatened to keep all in the house, away from the game until homework and chores were completed.

After high school, Twin worked at Philip Morris USA for many years, and during this time, he established deep lasting relationship with many good people, and was everybody’s buddy. But little did we know, that at the end of that career, his true calling would surface, selling cars. Twin could sell a “gasoline tank to the devil”; he could and he would! Just last year, a family friend shared that they had bought every car they ever owned from Vernon.

Uncle Danny showed so much love to his family, and loved to tease and entertain all the children, whether he was pulling a quarter from behind their ears; or showing them how many times and ways he could “crack his neck”. His legacy of strength and protection will always be remembered; which was often illustrated by him saying; “Don’t make me kill you”, then laughing.

Vernon leaves to cherish his memory,mother,Della C. Coverton;sister Jill C. Coleman(Chris);three brothers,Robert Coverton,Jr.,Nehemiah Malachi (twin) and Geoffrey D. Coverton;three nephews,Gerrin,Jullian and Samiel;close loving aunts and uncles; the best set of cousins ever, and a host of other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his father, Robert Coverton, Sr.; and brother, Dr. Ronald Covert on.

Thank you Danny for all the joy you gave us. You are one of a kind.
