

Vernon Elmore

June 27, 1938 - July 15, 2003

Elroy L. Cornwell, son of Carmen Mae Stinson and George Stinson, was born on February 27, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed from this life on July 15, 2003 after a lengthy illness. Elroy received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After attending school, he left for college at Virginia Union University. Upon completion of his education, Elroy became a full-time employee at a Nursing Home in North Carolina. Later, he returned back to Baltimore and attended Mount Calvary Freewill Baptist Church and was a member of the Men Assembled for Christ Choir. He also enjoyed attending the Saturday morning journey through the Bible Class with Bishop Farrow. Elroy made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He leaves to mourn: his mother, Carmen Stinson; his father, George Stinson; one brother, Anthony Stinson; two sisters-in-law, Michelle Stinson and Karen Wilson; one niece, Ivy Stinson; one nephew, Jamal Stinson; two god aunts, Constance Mebane and Ada Miles; one god sister, Donna Chiarella; and a host of other relatives and friends.
