“ Can't imagine Register Street without Ms Janie. I'm gonna miss her dearly. Whenever I called day or night Janie would always say "You ok before calling for Mr. George. I'm definitely gonna miss our time on the bench. And yes hearing her scream Caaarrrr! RIH Ms. Janie

“ Janie. Lord you were Register Street. You looked out for all of us kids. As Ronda put it, you'd yell out "Car" every time one was coming. The cook-outs and you and Mr George always made everyone feel welcome. I'm gonna miss you calling us "heathen". To Mr George, Evonne, Man, Ronda, Shirley and the rest of the family, my prayers are with you during this time. Fly high Jane. You deserve it. Anthony (Mooker) & Family. (Virginia, Della, Kayden & Avery)

“ I also remember every Friday was The Golden Girls (Jane, Maryann, Ella, Milburn, Wanda, Gina, Evonne) Spades Tournaments while keeping an eye on the cars that went up and down Regester Street. She would scream carrrrr!!!! To alert the kids playing in the streets to get out the street a car was coming. Prior to this Jane would clean up the whole block and then throw her card table out in the front of the house and play spades. Usually on this day we knew for a fact we would be eating either Popeyes Chicken, KFC Chicken or she had cooked some Fried Fish and some type of Potato dish. She could throw down in the Kitchen. I'm a miss your cooking Mama especially the Holiday spreads. 😭 I love you and rest Easy!

“ The Bombing Steppers!
Growing up all the kids in the Area would run to Broadway to see the Different Parades go up Broadway. So one day we decided to attempt to make our own Regester Street band. Veronda Jane made us clean the whole entire block. I would think it may have been about 10 kids total and her Daughter Evonne and Neighbor Ann was the Band Leaders. 🤔 But what Jane did was took my Sister and I to purchase Purple and White shirt and skirts so we could be “The Bombing Steppers, she even purchased her own outfit. George her Husband threw the grill out every weekend and we Marched from the Top of Regester Street to the Bottom. 🗣️The Bombing Steppers.....About Face! Rest Easy Mama!
