

Veronica Brown

March 22, 1961 - September 6, 2015

God opened His arms to welcome Veronica Lee Brown on September 6, 2015. Her devoted son, Keith B. Jones, was at her bedside. She was 54 years old. She was a breast cancer survivor. She was blessed in this life with three amazing grandchildren, MayKayla, age 6, Elijah Masoinet, age 5 and Eden Maisonet, age 2. Veronica, affectionately known as "Ronnie", attended Saint Ambrose and Rosa Parks Catholic Schools in Baltimore. She also attended high school at Saint Francis Academy. Ronnie eventually went on to complete her GED. After her secondary education, she obtained a commercial driver's license. Ronnie loved her son Keith very much and they were very close. They stuck together like two peas in a pod. Ronnie was also known for the love she had for her grandchildren. She loved them very much and enjoyed every single moment with them. She enjoyed taking short trips with them up the road to her favorite country restaurants. Everyone knew that her all-time favorite singing group was the Jackson 5, especially Michael. She even got an opportunity to see them perform in the mid-70s. She loved to chat and laugh with her sister Debbie and brother Delanor. Ronnie also loved her mother's fried chicken. Ronnie dearly loved her brother, Justin. Ronnie worked for various transportation employers as a bus driver for almost twenty-five years. She was a force to be reckoned with, and she did not tolerate unruly students on her bus. During her career as a bus driver, she allowed nothing or anyone to stop or slow her down. Though she suffered with lupus for many years, she never stopped driving her students - even on days when she was not feeling her best. Ronnie leaves to mourn her passing, her son, Keith B. Jones; her mother, Sinnia Brown; three brothers, Franklin Brock, Christopher Brown and Justin Harper; one sister, Jackie Ewell; three grandchildren; many friends including Rena Pitts and Miss Cook; other relatives and friends.
