“ Marvin,

*I want to convey my deepest sympathy on the loss of your sister. She was such a lovely lady and will be fondly remembered. Times like this truly test our faith. Just when things seem so disappointing is when we have to remember that God will not let us suffer any more than we can bear. By calling on our faith and putting our trust in God, we will find the peace and comfort that we are seeking to ease our pain. Your sister lived her faith every day and we owe it to her to show our faith and keep her beautiful memory alive. Our prayers should be in thanks for having had her in our midst all these many years. God Bless You and keep you in His embrace. Faithfully
Yours - Aunt Jacqueline Thompson*

“ Dear Neal and Gaston Families,
The Word of God clearly states that we are not to let our hearts be troubled: "ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." John 14:1-3. Take comfort in knowing that others care and that they are praying with and for you in the loss of your loved one. May the Lord our God be with you all during this time of mourning. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

Sharing in your sorrow,
