

Veronica L. Robinson

September 21, 1953 - April 20, 2012

Veronica L. Robinson, daughter of the late Richard and Bernadette Robinson, was born on September 21, 1953 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on April 20, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

She received her education at Polytechnic High School before deciding to continue her education at Coppin State University. Veronica jumped into the work force at the age of seventeen and worked years before finding her niche and career in the optical field after being employed at Penn Optical for over fifteen years.

Veronica encountered her battle with cancer in the early 90s. A battle in which she won, all while maintaining her career and raising her two children. Veronica ultimately lost her war with cancer as the disease returned earlier this year.

She leaves to mourn: two sons, James Baze and Jerome Johnson; two brothers, Richard and Ronnie Robinson; nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
