

Victor Bernard Kain Sr.

August 1, 1937 - November 18, 2014

VICTOR BERNARD KAIN, SR., beloved son of the late Robert and Clarene Hazel Kain, was born in Baltimore, Maryland on August 1, 1937. He departed this life on Tuesday, November 18, 2014.

Victor was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1955. In 1961, he married Ella Spriggs. Out of this union, two children were born, Victor Jr. and Lori. He had several jobs which included the United States Postal Service. In 1968, he began his career as an Offset Printer at Social Security Administration from which he retired in December, 2004.

As a youth, he served as an altar boy at St. James Episcopal Church where he fellowshiped. He was a beloved brother in Christ at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church upon his passing.

When he was younger, he spent many hours playing baseball and basketball. He enjoyed drawing and painting. In his later years, gardening was one of his passions. He was also an avid couponer and loved grocery shopping.

He was affectionately known as "Pop Pop" by his only granddaughter, Alexa. He was her personal playmate. As an only son, he was known as the "Little Prince" and loved by all. He was a quiet, gentle man who could always be depended on to do his part no matter how big or small. He made a good impression on everyone. He was a man of few words.

Victor is survived by the love of his life, his devoted and faithful wife of fifty-three years, Ella Kain; son, Victor B. Kain, [r.: daughter, Lori A. Battle (Ron); granddaughter, Alexa D. Battle; four sisters, Rosalind A. Manuel (Joseph), Clarene Wilkins (Holland), Phyllis Cook, and Elva Kain; one brother-in-law, Leroy Spriggs; and five sisters-in-law, Marion Dezurn, Rosetta Baylor (Linwood), Dorothy Spriggs, Margaret Spriggs and Lillian English; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.
