

VICTOR TAYLOR

May 4, 1948 - November 9, 2019

Victor Taylor was the son of Sally Lyons and James Taylor. He was born on May 4th 1948 in the state of North Carolina, Grandville. He received his education in Grandville Public schools where he advanced in Math's because he was so good with numbers.

Victor had 3 brothers and 2 sisters of whom he talked about all the time. He left North Carolina and moved to Baltimore in 1967 where he had 4 beautiful children. He was a dedicated employee of John Hopkins University for 35 long years, and he also retired from. While working for John Hopkins University he met the love of his life and soul mate Ellen Taylor. They were married soon after and spend every possible moment together. Everywhere you see Victor you would see Ellen and vice versa.

Victor was very good with building and his work at home ethics was remarkable, he always finished what he started. He loved taking care of his beautiful home, cooking, music, fishing just to name a few things of what made him special. He had a heart of gold and loved the simplest things in life. Victor made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely be missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man.

He leaves to morn: his lovely wife Ellen Taylor, his sister Nita Cobb, his children Mickey Oakley; the late Victor Taylor; Helen Taylor and Jerome Taylor. Brother in laws Michael Mickey and Bill Mickey, sister in law Myra Mickey and a host of other relatives and friends.
