“ Vikki meant and still means the world to me. There are too many memories for me to mention. When I met her in 1977, I knew we would have a close friendship that would last forever. I love her more than I could ever describe and she will be truly missed. I always felt a part of her family and love them all as my own. Thank you for being so very special in my life. May the love, prayers and support of so many friends and loved ones help the family through this most difficult time. Vikki you fly with the angels now and continue to smile in my heart forever.

Love you soooooo much!!

“ I remember Ms. Vikki coming over to do a little yard work. I invited her in for a cold glass or water. She ended up coming in eating dinner we had a 2 hour conversation.

Sometimes Ms. Vikki would stop in and say hey Lisa what you got on the stove. She would come in eat her two plates of food. Ms. Vik would always talk about her sons and how much she loved them even when they got on her nerves.

We are going to miss you! Rest In Peace Dear Lady!
