

Vietta M. Taylor

May 11, 1929 - January 2, 2011

VIETTA M. GROSS TAYLOR, the daughter of the late Gertrude and Augustus Gross was born on may 17, 1929 in Baltimore, MD. She was called home on Sunday January 2, 2011, after a lengthy illness. God in His wisdom looked down and said, "Come Home My Child with Me and Rest, for I know what's best."

Vietta was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. Vietta (also known as Dooley, Miss Vie, and Ma-Ma) enjoyed socializing with friends and family; especially her life-long friends, Gertrude, Delores, Fennie, Gloria, Bernice and Delores Wheeler. Vietta loved sending her children and grandchildren to the store to get her favorite snacks- her chocolate tasty-cake, plain chips, and orange soda and you better not forget her Afro and Sun papers, and she was famous for paying us 50cents. Vietta worked and maintained several jobs.

Vietta met William G. Taylor in 1948 and they were later married. From this union were seven children. Vietta will be going on to be with her husband William and her son Bryan who preceded her in death.

Vietta leaves to cherish her memory: six devoted children, Valerie, Pamela, William, Stanley, Samir and Shawan; eight grandchildren, Donna, Keisha, Shaneika, Keosha, Nicole, Keandra, Quran and Bryan Jr.; seven great-grandchildren, Kwin, Briana, Dionna, Zaire, Desyre, Demonte' and Kha'Liyah; loving sister, Romaine Harris; four sister-in-law, Helen Wells of Baltimore, MD, Evelyn Parker and Margaret Taylor of Warsaw, Va, and Ann Taylor of Fayetteville, NC; four brothers-in-law, Joe Wells of Baltimore, MD, Allen Robinson of Warsaw, VA, Johnny Taylor of Fayetteville, NC, and Leon Harris of Baltimore, MD; adopted daughter, Doris Barnes; and a host of devoted nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.
