

Vikki Evans

October 27, 1944 - July 7, 2008

A Time To Be Born:VIKKI EVANS was born on October 27, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland to Charles Edward and Lucille Ridgley.A Time To Learn:Vikki was taught early in a Christian home to love the Lord. She accepted Jesus as her personal Savior. She also was educated by the Baltimore City public schools.A Time To Work:Because Vikki loved all babies, it seemed natural that her initial employment began with babysitting. When factories were flourishing, her other early endeavors included the Rag Factory and the Beta Shoe Factory. Later, she worked for the Social Security Administration and subsequently for the C&P Telephone Company (now Verizon) until retirement in 1997.A Time To Love:Vikki's pride and joy were her children: Avery, Aaron (Poppy) deceased, Alise (Lisa) and her grandchildren.She was a Nintendo games enthusiast and loved watching television. Although Vikki preferred to stay home, she enjoyed being around others.She enjoyed eating a variety of foods and liked cooking and caring for her family. A couple of her specialty dishes were meat sauce with spaghetti and macaroni salad. She also made a mean sweet potato pie. Vikki's hobbies included reading, crossword puzzles, crocheting and playing cards.A Time To Die:Vikki truly fought a good fight. Through it all, she was strong and seldom complained. She did it her way.Vikki quietly and peacefully departed this life on July 7, 2008 after a lengthy illness.A Time To Heal:She leaves to celebrate her life and cherish her memory: son, Avery D. White; daughter-in-law, Donna White; daughter, Alise D. Wicks; grandsons, Avery D. White II, Eric White, Ryan Wicks, Irving Brown and Aaron D. White Jr.; granddaughter, Alisha D. Wicks; sister, Veronica Falu; brother-in-law, Jorge Falu-Marquez; brother, Edward C. Ridgley; sister cousin, Lavonne Pulley; aunts, Roberta Russell and Florine Fuller; uncles, William R. Fuller and Marvin T. Russell Sr.; devoted cousins, Danaye Pulley and Addie Fuller; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I offer my sincere condolences for your loss. May you have peace and comfort from our loving heavenly father. He cares deeply for us when we experience the sadness of losing a loved one, and he is always there to comfort and strengthen us to go on. One day soon he will erase the sorrow of sickness and death from our lives, and bring our loved ones back to life. Please read Isaiah 25:8 which says: "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. "And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, because Jehovah himself has spoken it." One day this world will be a peaceful place as God intended it to be, and it will be free of all violence, sickness, and death. Psalm 37:9-11. May you find much comfort in his wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. When we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love, it pains us like no other. God's word, the Bible, offers us comfort. At John 5:28,29 he assures us that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." At John 17:3 he also tells us what we need to do to ensure we are witnesses of this great event. I offer you an opportunity to discuss these wonderful promises in detail. Please contact me.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##

“ Please accept my deepest condolences for the loss of Mrs. Evans. One of my favorite scriptures is 1 Corinthians 15:26 which states: "As the last enemy, death is to be brought to nothing." Also, Acts 24:15 lovingly declares:"There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort as you think about these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##
