

Vilma Tuck

August 31, 1927 - December 2, 2006

Vilma Tuck was born on August 31, 1927 to the late Frank Brown and Mamie Drummer in the City of Baltimore. She put up a great fight as she battled and overcame several illnesses. Vilma suffered a stroke in 1994, but that never stopped her stride and strength to live. She was called to begin her journey home to glory on December 2, 2006. Vilma received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools. She married the late Foster M. Tuck. From this union they were blessed with eight children. Of the eight, Vilma Grayson, Alma Miller and Harold Tuck all preceded her in death. For many years, Vilma worked for the Department of Social Services. As a senior, she was part of the Coldstream Senior's Club. Vilma found peace and enjoyment in creating beautiful ceramic pieces. She put a lot of love and talent into her work. Vilma would give and sell her ceramic pieces to the family and community. Her work was greatly appreciated and is reflected in homes of her loved ones. My grandmother was very well known for her Mother's Day flowers, ice tea, Sunday dinners and pound cakes that we loved so much. Vilma was one of many siblings, and they all loved her very much. Vilma, Ms. Vilma, Bumma, Aunt Bumma, Mom or Grandma, whatever title you chose to call her, they were all out of love. Vilma leaves to cherish her memory: five sons, Melvin, Foster, Lester, Winfred and Pastor Otis Tuck; sister and brothers, Katherine Thomas, Danny Brown, Mabel Brown and Gary Brown; five daughters-in law, two sons-in-law, one sister-in-law, thirty-one grandchildren, thirty-two great-grandchildren, five great-great-grandchildren and a host of other family members and friends.

“ Hello ! Tuck's ! May I send my condolences you the family & friends. Losing a dear one breaks the circle of life for all of us. Ms.Vilma was 78 years young. The bible say at Ps.90:10 something about life, some persons will live to be 70 years old and others because of speical mightiness 80 years old. Imagine living forever, the bible holds out the promises of that time coming in the near future. I am looking forward to that happening. May all the cherish memories of Ms. Vilma support you all through life journey in the days ahead. My fellow feeling, Lillian.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. God’s original purpose was not for us to ever die. The thought of death is heartwrenching to us and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to death. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Just imagine our loved one coming back to life in the most beautiful earthly paradise you could ever imagine! Wouldn’t it be wonderful to greet them, tears of joy running down your faces and knowing that you will never lose them in death again. Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at (Rev. 21: 3-5) of a new earth where there will be no more death. These promises have brought comfort to millions. I wish the same for you.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
