“ My deepest prayers and condolences remain with Vincent’s mom, Carolyn, and the rest of his family. I met Vincent in approximately 1999 through my sister, Lekia, and he was instantly and unofficially adopted as my “brother in law.” His spirit was so kind, funny, and down to earth. By the grace of God, Vincent and my sister had a baby girl, Serenity, in 2004. I’ve been blessed to love, care for, and raise Serenity as my own while cherishing all of the wonderful memories of Vincent. Although Vincent and Lekia parted ways many years ago, I have continued to love Vince as a brother—and was able to visit and pray with him while he was ill. Vincent, I think about you often...the days when we barbecued at my grandmothers house in Cape Cod, Massachusetts...the fun times we went fishing...the family holiday dinners...your early role in helping to raise Serenity’s 2 older brothers...your contagious laugh, and your overall unforgettable spirit. May God continue to watch over your soul. You will eternally be missed by me, your daughter Serenity, and the rest of my immediate family. With Love and Prayer,
Teneshia

“ I had met Vincent back in 2015 where he had worked here in Boston. He was so full of humor, everyone enjoyed his company, so humble and handsome. We always remained close and he became a huge part of my life, but as time grew on and life took us on separate journeys he was never too far away. When he was ill and in the hospital I went every single day knowing that if it was I he would have done the same. he was always so giving. His memory will forever hold a dear place in me and my families heart, and I thank his family for giving me someone such as him. Also i wish you all great strength and comfort.
