A POEM FROM MOTHER

As I go throughout my days I feel it's all in vain. I smile when I think of you to cover up my pain. When I close my eyes to picture you I clearly hear you say, fix your face your face child why I am walking away. Up here I don't need help. Just remember, I'm serious, don't forget. For though I have passed on, your life still goes on. So it's a celebration. Oh what a blessed day. Rejoice for Vincent's Homecoming, that is what I would have wanted to be.
