

Vincent Lee Tyler

November 23, 1987 - November 17, 2005

VINCENT LEE TYLER JR., son of Cherisse Whitehead and Vincent Tyler Sr., was born on November 23, 1987. He surrendered his soul to the Lord on November 17, 2005 after a lengthy, intensive battle with cancer. In his fight against leukemia, we saw Vincent, the strong, brave, and courageous warrior. Vincent was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended Furman L. Templeton Elementary, Booker T. Washing Middle, and Fredrick Douglass High School. He was a member of the Oncology Family at the University of Maryland and John Hopkins Hospitals. In his short years of life, Vincent has touched many hearts. He was a quiet and loving person, who loved to be in the company of his family. Vincent enjoyed drawing, playing sports, listening to music, and spending time with his friends and nephew. He was loved by many and will always be in our hearts. He will forever be missed. He leaves to cherish his memory: his parents, Cherisse Whitehead and Vincent Tyler Sr.; his sisters, Brittany, Cashawnah, and Shannon Tyler; one nephew Dawayne Johnson Jr.; his grandparents, Vanessa Rich, Emma Davis, James Earl Whithead, and Nolan Wilson; one great grandmother, Laura Arrington; his aunts, Chanel, Angie, Thelmaline, Dee-Dee, Nanette, Gee-Gee, Abby, and Debra; his uncle, Anthony, Tony, James W., Padro, James, Christan, Johnny, Melvin, Raymond, Leroy, and the late Chico; his great-aunts, Sandra, Barbra, Brenda, and Vera and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
