

Vincent Meredith Cotman,

May 19, 1965 - March 28, 2009

Our beloved Vince Meredith Cotman, 43 of Charles City County, Virginia was born May 19, 1965 to Marion Cotman and the late Floyd Cotman. He departed this earthly life, March 28, 2009. Vince drove dump truck for most of his adult life. He loved being outdoors among nature and all life had to offer. Vince was a lover of fishing, which he often did at the spur of the moment, during the summer months. Vince was baptized in the spring of 1999 at Landmark Baptist Church by his older brother, Pastor Joseph Cotman. His life's pleasure was his family. He was the major motivator and supporter of Angela's education and aspirations. He showered his children with hugs and kisses and would always ask them "whose baby are you?", getting the reply of "daddy's baby". It was nothing for Vince to relax with the family to play board games or riding the 4-wheeler and go-carts on his well manicured lawn. Vince would want to be remembered for his kindheartedness, and generous nature. He was a great friend to all who knew and loved him. Vince almost always had a smile on his face. He would do anything he could to help someone in need whether, he knew you or not. Outside of his family, he was most proud of how he kept his lawn looking nice. Vince leaves fond memories to his loving wife, Angela Cotman; daughter, Lauren Cotman; son, Vincent Cotman, Jr.; loving mother, Marion Cotman; two brothers, Joseph Cotman (Rose) and Vernon Meredith (Tawana); devoted cousin, Keith Cotman; a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ Vincent Meredith Cotman,

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My heartfelt sympathy is extended to the entire Cotman family. Please know that God is with you always, call on him during these days and the days to come for He holds your tears in a bottle. Sincerely, Tawana Hall Meredith & family##imported-begin##Tawana Meredith##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My Beloved Uncle Vincent, There aren't any words to describe how deeply sadden I was when I learned of your passing. As the days have passed, I realize that you're in a MUCH better place now. Even though you're not here with us physically, I know you'll always be here in spirit watching over us. I'll continue to keep you and our family in my prayers forever, especially Aunt Angie, Lauren, and VJ. I can't imagine the pain they feel with you gone, but with the love and support of our family and friends, I can assure you that they will be okay! So don't worry and God bless us all! =] With Love, Sierra "SiSi" Green##imported-begin##Sierra G.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I offer my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the family at this most difficult time. When a loved one dies, many people wonder, will I truly see my loved one again one day? If we trust in the God of all comfort and put faith in his word, he promises that indeed we will not only see them again, but will be with them forever. John 3:16 tells us, "For GOd loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten son, in order that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed, but have everlasting life." Jehovah has given his beloved son Jesus all authority to ressurect the dead. John 5:25-29 Verse 28,29 says these powerful words: "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out; those who did good things to a ressurection of life." I pray that our loving heavenly father will wrap his loving arms around you and soothe and comfort your hearts until the glorious day of the ressurection arrives. Rmember the good times, and may they be an anchor for your souls. If you would like to know how these wonderful events will take place, please contact me at my e-mail address. Take care family.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM