

Vincent Herman Taylor

October 25, 1962 - January 21, 2020

Vincent "Vince" Herman Taylor, 57, was born October 25, 1962 to Willie and Mazie Taylor of Richmond, Virginia. Vince departed this life on Tuesday, January 21, 2020 at Memorial Regional Hospital.

Vince was educated in the Richmond Public Schools System and graduated in 1981 from John Marshall high School. He worked for the City of Richmond for a number of years in the Department of Public Works.

Vince was a jokester who loved to have a good time. To know Vince was to love him. He gave the very best of himself to his family, friends and anybody who needed a helping hand.

He was loyal to anyone he considered a friend. He truly loved his family. He was a die hard San Francisco 49ers fan. If they win this year's Super Bowl, he will be jumping for joy in heaven.

Vince was preceded in death by his parents, sisters, Barbara Jean Joyner and Marie Kidd; and brother Roger "Bo" Joyner.

He leaves to cherish his memories: devoted and loving wife of 30 years, Joyce Taylor; two devoted children, Jasmine Stamper and Vince Jordan Taylor; granddaughter, Kouture Taylor; sister, Ernestine Joyner; brother,

Charles Joyner (Gayle); devoted mother-in-law, Sarah Gaines; sisters-in-law, Gail Gaines and Gladys Wade (Robert); brothers-in-law, George Gaines, David Gaines (Betty Ann) and Benjamin Brown; three nieces, Sharon Joyner, Felicia Joyner and Francine Paige; two nephews, Corey Baker and truly devoted Christopher Joyner (Angie); "adopted nephew" Tuan Thompson; a host of other devoted family and friends.

Vince will be missed by many.
