

Viola Deloris Cook

October 5, 1944 - August 30, 2010

VIOLA DELORIS COOK, was born on October 5, 1944 in Baltimore, Maryland to Ruth And Jessie Clanton. On Monday, August 30, 2010 God sent down for His Angel, Viola to reside in her heavenly home.

Viola was educated in the Baltimore City Public School system. She attended Eastern High School. Her careers which spanned over several decades were social work and nursing. She gave her life to Christ early as a member of Holy Ghost Station. She raised two sons and loved her grandchildren, cooking for them and watching wrestling.

Viola had a love for helping with kids as she helped raise Jarrett and Snow.

Viola, better known as "Tootsie" was an active member of The Blazing Saddles and Mixed Company Social Club. She enjoyed riding, camping and cooking for her fellows. She traveled with The Holy Nights, The CBS Trumpeteers and other gospel groups that she loved passionately.

Viola still lives within her children, grandchildren, family and friends. Viola was preceded in death by her parents, Ruth and Jessie Clanton.

She leaves sons, Nathaniel and Nathan Black of Baltimore, Maryland; grandchildren, D'andre, Nicole, Amber, Michael, Shanay and Camira;

brothers, Wilbert Clanton of New York; and a host of other relatives, nieces nephews and friends.
